Sweet Bird of Youth . . .

High in a branch of an old oak tree an egg cracks and a baby bird begins its life. It investigates and reaches out for knowledge of its surroundings. Once it has made a good start in adapting to its surroundings, the little bird decides to try its wings to see how much it can do. Eventually, the little bird grows, matures, and flies from its protective nest to seek a new, more challenging life.

A high school student grows and matures just as a tiny bird does. In the following pages, you will enter a door to Chatham Central High School. You will come with us as we attempt to show you the activities that help our students prepare for the future.

Dedication

To our principal, Mr. W. H. Brookbank, who has been a friend, confidant, and guide throughout our high school years, we dedicate this our 1966 Centralia.

May we always remember
his three little words,
"study, study, study,"
and adapt them
to our lives in the future.

Sandy,

It sure doesn't seem like our year as sophomores is almost over does it? Just think, we'll soon be Juniors and then —— SENIORS!!! Although I have known you only for this short time, I have really had some fun this year. The best is yet to come - Prom night. We'll eat till our hearts delight.

I'll never forget all the many ball games. I wish I could remember all those great jokes we told on the activity bus! They were some good ones, weren't they?

You take real good care of Tim now and tell him to do the same. I'm looking forward to coming to see you and a houseful of kids someday! Best wishes + treat the world right!

Sue

Sandy,

I don't know where to begin to tell you how much your friendship has meant to me. First I want to tell you and Jim thanks a lot for helping me & Charlie. You both were great helping me & Charlie get back together & for taking us off. I have really had some good times for you both were wonderful people to be with. If it had not been for you ~~too~~ two, me & Charlie might both be dead today because at times we were ready to kill each other but you & Jim always got us back together. I'll never forget the day we went to White Lake. I really had a good time. Remember all those nights you & Jim came to the house & we just walked or talked. Remember the night Jim [illegible] & we went skating later. When we were walking we saw some trees we thought they were men & we were scared to death. Remember all [illegible] we've been [illegible] to the [illegible] together, by the way what were the names of them I forgot ha! What about that night we rode around the circle and what were we looking for, was it Tommy Williams Tomb??? I'll never forget all of our good times. What about that night we suppose to have a cookout at Pomona Pond & Charlie didn't come back [illegible] mad, but I really enjoyed myself at the picnic we had. Sandy I will never forget ~~our~~ all of our long talks & all of the weeds we have burned while doing it. You were a great listener. I must say that I miss all those talks!! I want to wish you the best of luck in the future because you certainly deserve it. Thanks a lot again for being such a wonderful friend to me! (& Charlie)

Love you!

Robert Merritt

Sandy,

It will be difficult to put into words what a wonderful person you are and what your friendship means to me! Its just great knowing you and going places with you! I'll never forget the great times we've had together in the past years, especially the night we went ghost hunting! Remember where we ended up at? And what about the water fights! Gosh, they were terrific, weren't they! It seems everytime we go somewhere, we're short of money, doesn't it! But scraping all our little pennies together was fun, even if we couldn't ever afford over a dollars worth of gas! I'm glad I finally learned how to lock your car door! I'll always remember the fun we had at the Valentine Dance! I guess everyone thought we were nuts, but it was still fun! Thanks for the gas "you" put in so I could take you home on Sunday morning! There's been bad times this year along with the good ones, but all in all, its been pretty wonderful!

Sandy, you're the greatest gal I've ever met and I'll always treasure your friendship! If anyone has ever deserved the very best, its you, and I know you'll get it if you remain as great as you are now! Here's hoping we'll be friends always! God be with you to bless & keep you!

A friend,
Treva

Sandy,

Great games. Without

Always keep up the good work and remember

May God Bless you.
Take care of Tim!
Keep cheering next year a great cheerleader. I will never forget some of the goods times we

"mistake" I made. Best Wishes to a very sweet and "beautiful" girl.
